House of Grace empowers survivors of domestic abuse to rebuild their lives in safety and dignity.

Through compassionate care, safe shelter, and community-wide advocacy, we foster a future free from violence. Our services are unconditionally open to all, without discrimination based on race, gender, background, sexual orientation, identity, or circumstance.

It's Someone You Know

OUR MISSION

01. To offer hope and a path forward for survivors of domestic violence and their children who may feel trapped in hopeless situations.

02. To offer confidential support, counseling, and a safe place to stay after leaving an abusive situation.

03. To empower survivors with the knowledge and skills they need to break the cycle of abuse and never feel forced to endure it again.
